Letter from the President

Welcome Ladies and Gentlemen to the Thoroughbred Chorus' 64th Annual Show. We have a Dazzling performance planned for you. You have joined us on a very special performance. We would like to take this opportunity to introduce our new Director, Andrew Wheaton. He is an incredibly talented young man and I hope you will take the time to read more about him in this program and read his letter to you on the next page. Please say hello to Andrew in the lobby after the show.

We have had a very busy year with the hiring of a new Director, our Spring Show in April and competing in our District's Barbershop convention in October. We have some new music that we hope you will enjoy as well as some of our most familiar tunes. There is no better way to ring in the Holiday season than with our presentation of the Christmas Story. I hope you will take the time to purchase our newest CD, "Kings and Vagabonds" in the lobby as well as fill out the comment card with all requested information for a chance to win a collection of all of our CDs currently offered by the Thoroughbreds.

Mark your calendars for next year as we celebrate 65 years with the Thoroughbred's own 1987 International Quartet Champions, The Interstate Rivals. We are also inviting all past Thoroughbreds to join us on stage for a Reunion Chorus. Buy next years tickets now and save your seat early. You won't want to miss this spectacular celebration!! If you are a past Thoroughbred and wish to join us next year, please let us know on the comment card with all of your information.

Special thanks to all the volunteers that made this show possible: especially our wives and significant others that support us in our love of music. Thank you to all the workers in the lobby that are selling CDs, hot apple cider, coffee and sweets. Remember, all concession sales and donations go to The House of Ruth, a local association of persons caring for children, families and individuals affected by HIV and AIDS. They provide advocacy and support for their physical, emotional, psychological and spiritual needs.

Finally, thank you to all the members of the Thoroughbred Chorus that have worked so hard to make the show a success. Your many hours of work will be well rewarded.

Ladies and Gentlemen, thank you for being a part of our 64th Annual Show. Happy Holidays and please enjoy the show!!

Yours in Harmony,
Eric Hunstiger
President

Letter from the Director

Welcome to the Thoroughbred's 64th Annual Christmas Show. Please allow me to introduce myself; My name is Andrew (Drew) Wheaton and I have been directing the Thoroughbreds since January. Thus, this is my first annual show with the chorus, and I could not be more excited.

I grew up near Montreal, QC, Canada and received a Bachelor's degree in Music Theory from McGill University. I have been singing barbershop for 18 of my 27 years. In 2011 my quartet, The Franchise, placed 18th at the International barbershop quartet competition in Kansas City, KS and then won the Johnny Appleseed District the following October. This past summer, in Portland, OR the other chorus with which I perform, the Kentucky Vocal Union, placed 3rd in the International barbershop chorus competition.

In 2005, while attending one of the International barbershop conventions I met my beautiful wife, Kristina, who grew up here in Louisville, KY. In fact, her Grandfather was the great Jim Miller, founding member of the Thoroughbred Chorus and director of the chorus for 6 of its 7 international championships. In June of 2010 I finally moved down to Kentucky to live with her and start a new life for myself, and for us, here. I am entering my final semester in a Music Education bachelor's degree at the University of Louisville.

I have had a wonderfully exciting year directing the Thoroughbreds. While I had always been well aware of the traditions deeply rooted in this chorus, I had not had the opportunity to experience it first-hand until I was already in. I am more than glad I decided to take on this position. I have learned so much from the men you see before you tonight, as well as a number of others who could not join us this evening. I would like to publicly thank them all for the time and energy they put in every week.

I would also like to specifically thank Mike Ehringer, Eric Hunstiger, and Troy Lovett for all of their guidance, trust, and, above all, support. I would not have made it this far without you three. I would also like to thank my assistant director, bass in my quartet, and father-in-law, Jay Hawkins, for all of the help, guidance, and occasional arguments over the course of the year to keep me moving in the right direction.

I need to thank my beautiful wife, Kristina, for all of the amazing love and support she always shows me. Special thanks go to Rosemary Miller, Jim's wife and Kristina's grandmother, who has always supported and believed in me. And while I wish I could, but cannot, tell him in person, I would like to thank Jim Miller himself, for being an amazing man, an amazing father and grandfather, a loving friend, an inspiration, and for being the first person to push me to apply for this director position. Thanks for believing in me, Jim. This one's for you.

Drew Wheaton is a graduate of McGill University in Music Theory and is now on his second year in the Music Education program at the University of Louisville. He has been singing barbershop since birth, officially being a member of the Barbershop Harmony Society for the last 17 years. Over those years he has sung with various quartets in the Northeastern District and now in the Johnny Appleseed and Cardinal Districts. In July 2011 The Franchise www.TheFranchiseQT.com , the quartet in which Drew sings tenor, placed 18th at the International Barbershop Quartet contest, and in October of that year they won the Johnny Appleseed District championship. Drew also runs a learning track recording business, which you can find at www.akwrecording.com .

Are you interested in a historic setting for your event? Jim Miller Hall is a real treasure! The cornerstone was laid on July 3, 1833. After a fire destroyed the original building, was dedicated on September 8, 1895. It was then purchased by the Thoroughbred Chorus in 1981. The building was known as Thoroughbred Hall until the Thoroughbreds renamed the building after Direcotr Emeritus Jim Miller who led the Thoroughbreds to 6 of their 7 Internatonal Chamipionahips.

Lunch Break

Bearing the overwhelming burden of stupid

Lunch Break enjoyed fame in the mid 80's with the release of their hit single "Addicted To Your Four Part Lovin'", a bold rock and roll/barbershop fusion. While still popular in Japan (and small pockets in Southeastern Germany), they have gone back to more traditional a cappella roots and more selective audiences.

Shane Scott, tenor, is a preacher and professional talker. The quartet's self proclaimed "comedic genius" lends his mighty pen free of charge to the quartet as he crafts parody lyrics still resonating in the funny bones of all who are blessed to bear witness. Shane resides in Mount Pleasant with his wife Kristi.

Eddie Holt, lead, croons a melody as best as he can while adeptly dodging the advances of his many legions of fans. While Eddie is a webmaster for the Barbershop Harmony Society, avoiding the limelight and protecting his personal space is really his full time job. Eddie lives in Mount Juliet with his wife Laura and their two children, twins Owen and Olivia.

KJ McAleesejergins, baritone, is the newest staff member at Harmony Foundation International where the gift of harmony is the mission and Youth In Harmony is the goal. KJ and his lovely wife Emily serve in the National Guard on weekends jamming with their band, and there's no way to satiate his appetite for ranch.

Mike O'Neill, bass, lives in Hendersonville with his wife Jenny and three daughters Katelyn, Kylie, and Kelsey. Mike enjoys a close head shave as much as anyone. Mike works for the Barbershop Harmony Society as well, and travels the land far and wide unleashing his voluminous directorial training skills on unsuspecting choruses and quartets the world over.

CONGRATULATIONS to the Thoroughbred Chorus for earning the 2011 Chapter Achievement Program Award.

This award goes to one Chapter in all of the Barbershop Society worldwide. It is based on many factors including member growth, paid and free performances and continuing education for current members and local youth.

Congratulations to 2011 President Ron Brumleve and his Leadership Team on a job well done!!!

HIRE THE THOROUGHBREDS

The Thoroughbreds are available to entertain at your next event!

Whether you require a large or small group, even a quartet; The Thoroughbreds are always a real crowd pleaser, performing their unique style of Barbershop Harmony. The chorus has sung for President George Bush, on ABC's Home Show, G.E. Derby Extravaganza and most recently for the Medal of Honor recipients, just to name a few. Let us add a special touch of class to your next event.
